

JOINT VENTURE POLICY

I. JOINT VENTURES OR SIMILAR ARRANGEMENTS WITH TAXABLE ENTITIES

A. For purposes of this policy, a joint venture or similar arrangement (or a “venture or arrangement”) means any joint ownership or contractual arrangement through which there is an agreement to jointly undertake a specific business enterprise, investment, or exempt-purpose activity without regard to:

1. Whether the Foundation controls the venture or arrangement;
2. The legal structure of the venture or arrangement;
3. Whether the venture or arrangement is taxed as a partnership or as an association or corporation for federal income tax purposes. A venture or arrangement is disregarded if it meets both of the following condition:
 - a. 95% or more of the venture’s or arrangement’s income for its tax year ending within the Foundation tax year is excluded from unrelated business income taxation [including but not limited to:
 - i. Dividends, interest, and annuities;
 - ii. Royalties;
 - iii. Rent from real property and incidental related personal property except to the extent of debt-financing; and,
 - iv. Gains or losses from the sale of property]; and,
 - b. The primary purpose of the Foundation’s contribution to, or investment or participation in, the venture or arrangement is the production of income or appreciation of property.

II. SAFEGUARDS TO ENSURE EXEMPT STATUS PROTECTION

A. The Foundation will:

1. Negotiate in its transactions and arrangement with other members of the venture or arrangement such terms and safeguards adequate to ensure that the Foundation’s exempt status is protected; and
2. Take steps to safeguard the Foundation’s exempt status with respect to the venture or arrangement. Some examples of safeguards include:
 - i. Control over the venture or arrangement sufficient to ensure that it furthers the exempt purpose of the Foundation:
 - ii. Requirements that the venture or arrangement gives priority to exempt

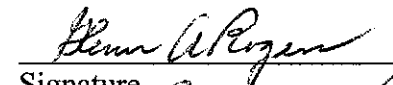

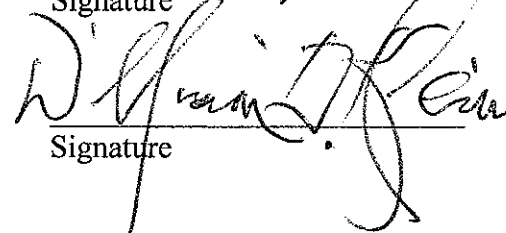

- iii. purposes over maximizing profits for the other participants; That the venture or arrangement not engage in activities that would jeopardize the Foundation's exemption; and
- iv. That all contracts entered into with the organization be on terms that are arm's length or more favorable to the Foundation.
